What's in a Name?

- At nonprofits:
 - Development Services, Development Administration, or Development Operations.
- At universities:
 - Development Services or Advancement Services.
“Advancement” includes functions beyond fundraising, such as Alumni Relations, Public Relations, Governmental Relations.

A Brief History of Development Services as a Profession

- January 1990: First (known) conference track, presented by the Council for the Advancement and Support of Education (CASE).
- May 1990: First (known) standalone conference presented by CASE.
- 1999: CASE publishes Advancement Services: Research and Technology Support for Fund Raising. (New edition due out in 2006.)
- 2000: Chapter on Advancement Services included in CASE's Handbook of Institutional Advancement.

The Mission of Development Services

- To facilitate fundraising, gift processing, fund management, and stewardship.
- To provide the backbone of the fundraising enterprise.
- To make the development officers look good.
- To keep management out of trouble.
- To understand, and explain, all regulations governing fundraising and gift processing.

— John Taylor

The Mission of Development Services

- To support your organization's fundraising efforts.

— Anita Lawson

At Its Simplest, DS...

- Processes gifts.
- Creates and updates biographical records.
- Generates receipts and produces reports.
- Ensures compliance with regulations.
- Protects the privacy and security of donor data.

But DS Might Also Include...

- Prospect Research
- Staff Training
- Donor Relations
- Endowment Stewardship
- Campaign Accounting
- Special Events
- Information Technology
- Facilities Management
- Human Resources

Why Should You Care?

- A totally satisfied customer contributes 2.6 times as much revenue as a somewhat satisfied customer.
- A totally satisfied customer contributes 14 times as much revenue as a somewhat dissatisfied customer.
- A totally dissatisfied customer actually decreases revenue at a rate equal to 1.8 times what a totally satisfied customer contributes.

Why Should You Care?

- 50% of people who encounter a problem don't complain.
- Twice as many people are told about a bad experience as are told about a good one.
- One unhappy customer will tell nine others.
- 13% will tell at least 20 other people.

- Cost to acquire a new direct mail donor: $1.00 to $1.25 per dollar raised.
- Cost to renew a direct mail donor: $.20 per dollar raised.

Why Should You Care?

Many donors are governed by Sarbanes Oxley and expect you to behave as if you are as well.

The U.S. federal government, including Congress, the Treasury Department and the Internal Revenue Service are all paying close attention to certain types of charitable deductions they believe donors are taking advantage of.

U.S. Internal Revenue Code 6701 provides for civil penalties of $1,000 per incident per tax period against any person or entity that assists in the creation of a document that they know would result in an understatement of tax liability.
